NOTICE: WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. It prohibits the copying reproduction or distribution of copyrighted material without the copyright holders consent except under certain limited circumstances and under special conditions specified in the law. Libraries are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction of copyrighted materials if the photocopy or reproduction is not to be, "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research."

If a user makes a request for, or later uses a photocopy or preproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use", that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of Copyright law.
