This bibliography began as an internship project and would not be possible without the help of my mentor and advisor, Terry Conroy, a reference librarian at the University of South Carolina Coleman Karesh Law Library. I would also like to thank all the other reference librarians at USC for their assistance and support, and Russell Altman, the Director of Information Services at Haynsworth, Sinkler Boyd.

Introduction

This selection of resources provides an overview of important legal materials in South Carolina. The audience is intended to be attorneys, students, and any member of the public that might find a listing of these resources helpful. The scope is not intended to be exhaustive, but to present some of the best resources available for researching South Carolina law and practices.

This annotated bibliography is organized according to type of resource and then subject matter. Resources listed under general publications are generally primary in nature, while those under subject materials are secondary. Legal topics under the subject material heading are arranged alphabetically. Materials available electronically are noted in the annotation with a link provided.

Most materials can be found in at the University of South Carolina School of Law Coleman Karesh Law Library. Many secondary materials are available from the South Carolina Bar, Continuing Legal Education Division.
